BLUE MOUNTAIN JOINT HIGH SCHOOL

Cressona, Pennsylvania

NINETEEN HUNDRED AND FIFTY-NINE

FOREWORD

In the succeeding pages the staff of the Mountain Echo presents a day by day account of our senior year. As you page through this annual, we hope it will recall memories of the hours spent in classes; learning to cook and sew or memorizing complicated formulas; in sports, whether it be a volleyball game in gym class, or a championship basketball game; and in activities, from the Senior Ice Cream Party to the Junior Prom. These were our days in Blue Mountain High.

THE MOUNTAIN ECHO STAFF

The senior boys who are taking the agricultural course are enjoying a game of basketball on the court for which the FFA donated the money and provided much of the labor.

Several commercial students concentrate while taking a speed test in typing.

The members of a senior college preparatory class are struggling through Macbeth.

The girls in a home economics class are busily at work preparing for the day when they will be cooking in their own kitchens.

CLASS SONG
(TUNE: RED SAILS IN THE SUNSET)

My friends and my classmates,
Our parting is near.
The future will hold dreams
Of gladness and fear.

Our lips are not smiling,
Our eyes filled with tears,
For we know tomorrow
We'll part with our fears.

The halls are deserted,
Our books put away.
Our studies are through now,
There's no time for play.

We'll miss all our teachers,
Our classes, and friends,
Now that our school years
Have come to an end.

Alma Mater

All hail to you, Blue Mountain High
To life you hold the key:
Staunch we'll remain throughout our lives,
Faithful we'll always be.
Blue stands for honor and loyalty,
White symbolizes our faith;
To your dear name we will ever be true,
Hail to the white and blue.

Our Alma Mater strong and true,
We pledge our hearts to you;
Formed in good faith and fellowship,
Nurtured with love and care.
Guided through years by your leadership,
Given the will to dare;
In deep respect we will hold your name,
Blue Mountain we'll proclaim.
